

All I Want

(from All I want this is sung to the tune of “Wouldn’t It Be Lovely?” from “My Fair Lady”, except for the incidental links. A song about the things that should really be important to us - Matthew 6: 19-21 “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”)

Mopy: If you could have whatever you wanted in the whole world right now what would you ask for?

Happy: Um, world peace?

Mopy: No, I mean, what real things would you ask for?

Happy: What do you mean real things?

Mopy: *Well....All I want is a DVD,
With lots of movies for me to see,
And maybe sky for free,
Oh wouldn’t it be lovely*

*Lots of chocolates for me to eat,
Not too much healthy stuff, like full grain wheat,
And a coke machine would be neat
Oh wouldn’t it be lovely*

*Oh so lovely pretending that all this is real
I will never budge
Til the pizza dude, comes round to give me my meal*

*Someone willing to clean and wash,
I wouldn’t do it for myself cause I’m too posh,
And a lifetimes supply of dosh
Oh wouldn’t it be lovely*

Happy: There must be other stuff you’d like?

Mopy: Yes, I’d like a Nintendo Cube....

Happy: No! Not stuff you buy, important things

Mopy: Like what?

Happy: *Like...La, la, la, la! All I want is the life I've got Filled with important things that never rot
Like my friends, we laugh a lot!
That's things that make life lovely*

*Lots of new things for me to see
The beach and the sun for fun that's free
And what's more, God loves me!
Yes that's what I call lovely*

*Oh so lovely knowing everything I have is real
I will never budge
Cause me and God, shook hands and made a deal*

*Home is cosy and warm and bright
Somewhere I can sleep safe every night
And my family hardly ever fight
That's things that make life lovely*

Mopy: Lovely

Happy: Lovely

Mopy: Lovely

Happy: Lovely

Mopy: (giggles) You've been listening to Happy and Mopy

Happy: Thank you very much

Mopy: Bye!

Happy: Bye!