

Easter Song

[To the tune of "Cuddle Up A Little Closer", as sung by Dean Martin, Julie London, Doris Day...]

Happy: When Jesus came down to the earth to show folks how
They could get to heaven he did cause a great big row

Mopy: The Pharisees said he was lying
The chief priests found his influence frightening

Happy: So they agreed for permanent silencing

Mopy: He must die now

Happy: They got one of his own close friends to dob him in

Mopy: But Jesus said they mustn't fret, He'd conquer sin

Happy: He said he'd be back soon to show them
That not even death could hold him

Mopy: Then leave them with the Holy Spirit gem

Happy: He knew he'd win

Mopy: It looked like Jesus' plan had failed on Good Friday

Happy: But when he was crucified our debts he did pay

Mopy: It didn't seem very likely
That in three days he would be sprightly

Happy: But he arose and rules mightily
Jesus wins the day!

Mopy: Hooray!
